DESCRIPTION

Walls: Stone/Brick Roof: Comugated Iron
Condition: Good Integrity:
Original fabric:
Modifications: Wide replacement verandah

This stone house has a comugated iron hipped roof with a rendered corbelled chimney to the south west. The stone work to the front of the building is finely pointed with red brick arches above the central entry

STATEMENT OF SIGNIFICANCE

Although the original verandah has been replaced, the simple form of the place and the use of local stone gives the place aesthetic significance. The house demonstrates the use of local materials and contributes to the streetscape of the locale.

MANAGEMENT CATEGORY

Management Category: 3
Level of Significance: MODERATE SIGNIFICANCE: Important to the heritage of the locality.
Management Recommendation: Conservation of the place is recommended. Any proposed change to the place should not unduly impact on the heritage values of the place and should retain significant fabric wherever feasible.
