Sited on the grass verge in front of the Department of Agriculture Buildings, the simple circular well has been filled in and had the stone work restored. A steel frame supports the windless with a small metal bucket attached.

HISTORY

Construction Date:	1850	Source:	Feilman
Architect:	Unknown
Builder:	Unknown

The current structure was built over the old police well which was almost identical to the Two Mile Well at Bluff Point. The current windlass is an original government issue which was obtained by Stan Gratte from the Public Works Department at Meekatharra.
