In the 1890's the Mullewa town well was located in Stokes Street, close to where the first school was built. Another water source on the Pindar Road

HISTORIC THEMES

HCWA:	107 Settlements
AHC:	3.11.5 Establishing water supplies

STATEMENT OF SIGNIFICANCE

Wells and other water sources were critical in the opening up and development of the district and were crucial in the droving of stock. Each individual watering point has its own value, however as a whole they indicate the historic routes taken by drovers and travellers.
